CLERK: Roll call vote. Senator Anderson...

SPEAKER: Just a second, Mr. Clerk. Senator Carpenter has moved to raise this bill from Committee. As I understand it, the Committee killed the bill. If you want to raise this bill to the floor, you will vote yes. If you don't want to raise it to the floor you will vote no. The clerk will, please, proceed.

We welcome you here to the Legislature today and hope that you will enjoy yourselves. Anything further, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, a Reference Committee report--read. Mr. President, your committee on Banking, Commerce and Insurance --read. Mr. President, we have some bills that are correctly enrolled.

SENATOR CARPENTER: To reassign five bills, there.

SPEAKER: Mr. Clerk, do you have a motion on your desk to reassign five bills? That's been taken care of, I believe, Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: On General File, then. Thank you, sir. I run it across there...
